AUSTRALIAN PICTURE BOOKS (16-50)

(RRP) (SCHOOL)

16. Annie's Chair (Deborah Niland)

Today, Annie was boiling mad. Someone was sleeping in her chair! 'No one is allowed on my chair!' Annie tells everyone. What will Annie do to get her favourite chair back? From the much-loved illustrator of 'There's a Hippopotamus on Our Roof Eating Cake' comes a delightful character - a little girl with a determined streak and a big personality!

$24.95 $22.46

17. Australia at the Beach (Max Fatchen and Tom Jellett)

Humorous and detailed illustrations enhance the fun of this story, told in verse, of a family day at the beach. All we hold dear about such outings is included from the Norfolk Island Pines to the technique required to cross the hot road with bare feet. William loses his ice cream, his bathers and his sandal, but finds a new use for sunscreen. Finally reprinted!

$9.95 $8.96

18. Blossom Possum (Gina Newton and Kilmeny Niland)

Early one morning Blossom Possum gets such a fright she thinks the sky is falling down! She has to tell someone, so she sets off with her news. On the way she meets her bush mates. But she also runs into trouble. The retelling of a favourite folktale has a delightful Aussie twist and a refreshingly positive ending.

$24.95 $22.46

19. Bobbie Dazzler (Margaret Wild and Janine Dawson)

Bobbie could jump and skip, and whirl and twirl. She could hop on her left leg. And on her right leg. She could walk on her heels and walk on her toes. But she could not do the splits. "Never mind," said Koala, Wombat and Possum. But Bobbie minded. A lot! A joyful, effervescent Australian story for children aged 3 plus.

$24.95 $22.46

20. By Jingol; An Alphabet of Animals (Janeen Brian and Dee Huxley)

Janeen Brian's warm and witty poetry teams with Dee Huxley's lush pastel illustrations to create a wonderful picture book bouncing with colour, humour and energy. This unique alphabet book will be loved and revisited time and time again by the very young and the very grown-up!

$27.95 $25.16

21. Caruso's Song to the Moon (Adele Jaunn)

Caruso is a cat who fancies himself as a bit of a crooner. He sings a lovely scale to the moon, and admires each of the individual notes. Unfortunately, Caruso's overtures are not appreciated by his neighbours. Mrs Evans, who is being kept awake by Caruso's caterwauling, throws a bucket of water at him. Caruso's Song comes to the rescue as fire breaks out!

$14.95 $13.46

22. Castles (Colin Thompson)

In this fantastical world there are castles in space, floating castles, castles in the sky and castles made of glass. Each one hides a royal family and there are all the usual mazes, puzzles, tricks and messages waiting to be discovered. Colin Thompson's wonderfully detailed artwork reaches new heights of ingenuity and invention in this brilliant new book.

$32.95 $27.95

23. Cat and Fish Go To See (Joan Grant and Neil Curtis)

Cat and Fish forged their beautiful friendship in the 2004 Picture Book of the Year 'Cat and Fish' which became an instant classic. In 'Cat and Fish Go to See' they sail away through storm and gale to a beautiful tropical island. On the way they meet many friendly creatures from both their worlds - and Cat even teaches himself to fly!

$27.95 $25.16

24. Clancy the Courageous Cow (Lachie Hume)

Although he is part of a herd of Belted Galloways, Clancy has no belt and all the other cows treat him like an outcast. Clancy tries all kinds of ways to give himself a belt, but nothing works, until he discovers there is an advantage to being all black - he can sneak unseen into the rich pastures of the fat Herefords next door! You might know the authors Mum, Alison Lester!

$24.95 $22.46

25. Day of the Elephant, The (Barbara Ker Wilson and Frane Lessac)

The Day of the Elephant is set in Thailand and is based on reports of incidents that occurred during the tsunami that hit the coastlines South East Asia on Boxing Day 2004. The story centres around an elephant, Mae Jabu, who saves a small group of children by anticipating the disaster. Ages 4+

$24.95 $22.46

26. Doodledum Dancing (Meredith Costain and Pamela Allen)

Here's a book of giggly, wiggly, squiggly poems. You can munch them for breakfast. You can crunch them for lunch. You can gobble them for dinner. But best of all, you can read them out loud and share them with your friends again and again.

$24.95 $22.46

27. Gilbert Goes Outside (Colin Thompson)

Gilbert is not a happy cat. The lady he calls his mum has put him outside and shut the door. Nature is horrible. The grass is hurting his feet and the only place to hide is inside an old paper bag. He has had a scary dream and now he is going to be sick all over the big angry cat from next door...A sequel to the much-loved 'Gilbert' from this popular author/illustrator.

$27.95 $25.16

28. Hop, Little Hare (Margaret Wild and Peter Shaw)

Little Hare and Grandpa were good friends. They spent a lot of time together. Grandpa had aches and pains in his joints and could only hop slowly. As for Little Hare, he hadn't yet learned how to hop. So Grandpa went hibble-hobble, hibble-hobble, and Little Hare went bump, bump, bump on his bottom, and together they hopped! Ages 4+.

$24.95 $22.46

29. India, the Showstopper (Kerry Argent)

India the circus elephant is an absolute whiz on the mouth organ. She's the star of the show, and she knows it. But when a tough circus re-trainer, Oswald the Magnificent, arrives to teach everyone new tricks, India does something very BAD. Losing her place in the limelight shows India a thing or two about the pitfalls of celebrity and the value of friends.

$24.95 $22.46

30. In the Bush; Our Holiday at Wombat Flat (Roland Harvey)

A companion to Roland Harvey's marvellous picture book 'At the Beach', 'In the Bush' takes our family on a holiday at Wombat Flat: a bushland setting where they enjoy a range of bush holiday activities. Guaranteed to occupy children for hours as they search the illustrations for the people, creatures and activities identified in the very funny text.

$24.95 $22.46

31. Irving the Magician (Tohby Riddle)

Irving lives with his Aunt Irma in a big block of flats in a part of town that nobody visits unless they have to. The people who live around him are sad and lonely. When Irving overhears someone say that the magic has gone from life, Irving decides to become a magician to bring the magic back. This is a truly magical story that inspires happiness.

$24.95 $22.46

32. Jungle Drums (Graeme Base)

Little Ngiri is the smallest Warthog in Africa. Tired of being teased by his bigger brothers and sisters, he wishes things could be different. When Old Nyumbu the Wilderbeest gives Ngiri a set of magic drums, he is sure his wish is about to come true. But all the animals of the jungle are in for a BIG surprise as Ngiri's wish is granted in a most unexpected way. Jungle Drums is a gloriously illustrated storybook with a puzzle element, set in the African jungle. Now in paperback.

$19.95 $17.96

33. Little Crooked House (Margaret Wild and Jonathon Bentley)

Based on the traditional nursery rhyme, this delightful new picture book comes with a twist. There was a crooked man, who lived with a crooked cat and a crooked mouse all together in a little crooked house. Grand illustrations accompany this wonderful story in which the crooked man and his friends finally find a home.

$27.95 $25.16

34. Louisa May Pickett. The Most Boring Person in the Class (Rod Clement)

Louisa May Pickett's one and only talent is Show and Tell. At her old school, she was voted 'The Most Interesting Person' three years in a row. But little does she know that the kids at Bobbin Head Primary have a few interesting items of their own for Show and Tell! A story of acceptance... and 'trying a little too hard'.

$24.95 $22.46

35. Midnight Star, The (Nette Hilton and Bruce Whatley)

Every night the smallest bilby looks up at the midnight sky and searches for his favourite star, the smallest one that hangs close to the edge of the sky. Every night she shines down on him. But one night, fearful that she may go away and never come back, the smallest bilby decides to give her something that will make her remember him forever and always.

$19.95 $17.96

36. Monster Wrote Me a Letter, A (Nick Bland)

When a boy inadvertently intercepts and replies to a letter meant for the monster who lives under his bed, he discovers that another monster is coming to play. The boy nervously studies up on how to appeal to a visiting monster, while the monster is thrown into a panic over how to adapt his style to suit a little boy. Great for those with a vivid imagination.

(RRP) (SCHOOL)

37. Mystery of Eilean Mor, The (Gary Crew and Jeremy Geddes)

$27.95 $25.16

This is the true story of the Eilean Mor lighthouse. It took four years to build but its light shone for just one. The lighthouse keepers stationed there all disappeared without a trace. Their log entries betray a frightening secret that may help solve the mystery of Eilean Mor. Haunting illustrations for the older picture book reader. Ages 8+

38. Noises at Night (Beth Raisner Glass and Bruce Whatley)

$24.95 $22.46

When a little boy tries to fall asleep, he is kept awake by all the late-night noises around his house. From the hiss of the heater, to the whieee of the wind, these noises soon lead to great adventures. In this fast-paced picture book with great rhyme and rhythm, Bruce Whatley teams with an American author. See if you can pick the 'Australianised' pages!

39. On Our Way to the Beach (Sofie Laguna and Andrew McLean)

$14.95 $13.46

From the author of Too Loud Lily comes this wonderful holiday adventure. The family is on their way to a beach holiday. Mum, Dad, three children, the dog and Uncle Daniel all travelling in their green van, stopping at some interesting places along the way. At night they try to imagine what the beach is like. Will it meet their expectations?

40. Outback, The (Annaliese Porter and Bronwyn Bancroft)

$22.95 $20.66

Annaliese Porter captures the Australian outback with all its moods in this moving bush ballad about the country's vast interior. Written when she was only eight years old, 'The Outback' brings together a gifted young writer and one of Australia's most celebrated artists, in this stunning full-colour picture book.

41. Patterns of Australia (Bronwyn Bancroft)

$24.95 $21.95

'Patterns of Australia' presents a series of Australian landscapes and habitats in 'patterns', as seen through the eyes of acclaimed indigenous artist Bronwyn Bancroft. Each landscape contains hidden within it animals, birds, plants and flowers particular to that area, accompanied by text evoking the place and listing the things to find. Ages 4+

42. Pigs and Honey (Jeanie Adams)

$9.95 $8.96

One Friday evening an Aurukun family decides to go out camping for the weekend — and what an adventure it turns out to be! Everyone, from Granny and Grandad to the youngest babies, drive out into the bush to hunt wild pigs, and that night there is a wonderful feast of roast meat, wild honey and damper. Reprinted after a number of years a great title to add to your Aboriginal studies collection.

43. Refugees (David Miller)

$14.95 $13.46

A small green swamp just past the edge of town is home to two wild blue-billed ducks, a place where 'tall reeds rustled around its edge, hiding croaking frogs and clouds of buzzing insects, while swallows flitted restlessly over the clear water.' But one day huge, rumbling, grumbling machines crawl, scraping and gouging, towards the swamp.

44. Rex (Ursula Dubosarsky and David McIntosh)

$24.95 $22.46

Meet Rex. He is the class pet. Every day, someone gets to take Rex home. What would you do if Rex came to visit you? Rex is sure to charm young readers in this delightful new picture book from the combined talents of Ursula Dubosarsky and David Mackintosh.

45. Summer (June Factor and Alison Lester)

$12.95 $11.66

June Factor's simple text and Alison Lester's delightful illustrations combine to create a special magic that captures the feeling of summer, and all that it brings: changing weather, family gatherings, Christmas, lots of fun and ... flies!

46. Too Many Monkeys! (Margaret Wild and Sally Rippin)

$14.95 $13.46

Mum and Dad and Eenie and Meenie and Baby Mo live in a tree in the forest. The tree is just the right size for their family. Then one morning Granny and Grandpa come to stay and everybody is squashed up ('Someone's tail is tickling my nose!'). So the family sets off to find another tree that's just the right size. Great for kids with changing family conditions.

47. Too Many Pears! (Jackie French and Bruce Whatley)

$14.95 $13.46

Pamela the cow absolutely loves pears — fresh pears, pear pie, stewed pears, any pears — they are all irresistible to Pamela. Finally it takes a clever little girl to convince Pamela that there is more to life than pears ...now in paperback.

48. Voyage of the Poppykettle, The (Robert Ingpen)

$24.95 $22.46

This stunningly illustrated book is a haunting tale of the ancient brass keys that were discovered on the coastline near Geelong in the 1840's. A mythical race of miniature people called The Hairy Peruvians have to leave their homeland and embark on a wild journey across the sea to Australia. But if they didn't bring the ancient keys, how did they get there?

49. What Time Is It, Mr Crocodile? (Judy Sierra and Doug Cushman)

$12.95 $11.66

Mr Crocodile plans to catch and eat five pesky monkeys, but as the hours pass, the monkeys dupe him again and again. In the end, they teach Mr Crocodile something about friendship and having fun too.

50. Wild Animals ABC (Garry Fleming)

$16.95 $15.26

In Garry Fleming's Wild Animals ABC, larger-than-life, incredibly detailed and realistic paintings are coupled with a simple, quirky text, which makes learning the alphabet fun. Young children will be mesmerised by the magnificent paintings, captured beautifully in this large-format picture book, and will be drawn to the book time and time again.

$14.95 $13.46

Celebrated children's author John Heffernan has compiled ghost stories from across Australia for this sometimes scary, sometimes funny, but always mysterious new title. With spooky tales from the city and the bush, from olden times to present day - all drawn from actual accounts - 'Haunted Australia' is perfect for young readers who love to be terrified!

341 How Cool Stuff Works (Dorling Kindersley)

$49.95 $44.96

You use all kinds of incredible technology every day. But how does it really work? What makes your mobile work? What's inside an iPod? How do trainers put a spring into your step? With incredible detail and eye-popping photographs, this is the amazing lowdown on today's technology and tomorrow's gadgets.

342. If The World Were A Village (David J Smith)

$16.95 $15.26

At this moment there are more than 6 billion people on this planet. Picturing so many people at one time is hard - but what if we imagine the whole world as a village of just 100 people? In this village: 22 people speak a Chinese dialect, 20 earn less than a dollar a day, 17 cannot read or write, 50 are often hungry, 24 have a television in their homes. Although unavailable when advertised in last years catalogue, this title is now available and gives a fantastic snapshot of the world.

343. Kingfisher Football Encyclopedia (Clive Gifford)

$29.95 $26.96

Pele holding aloft the Jules Rimet trophy in 1970; Maradona's 'goal of the century' in 1986; and Greece's triumph against the odds at Euro 2004 - the world's most popular game has provided some of the most iconic and memorable moments in sport. All these and many more are captured in this treasure trove of information.

344. Math Potatoes (Greg Tang)

$19.95 $17.96

Greg Tang is back with his best-selling approach to addition and subtraction: problem solving. By solving challenges that encourage kids to 'group' numbers rather than memorise formulas, even the most reluctant maths learners are inspired to see maths in a whole new way!

345. Red Haze (Leon Davidson)

$16.95 $15.26

Australia and New Zealand followed America into Vietnam to save a country from 'going down the drain'. It was the first time Australians were conscripted to fight. There was no frontline and no safe zone. In the thick jungles the Vietcong were everywhere, nowhere and winning. To defeat them, Australia and New Zealand almost tore themselves apart.

This picture book for the very young is written from a small girl's point of view. She goes to the pre-dawn Anzac Day service with her father where they watch the girl's grandfather march in the parade. This is an excellent introduction to this highly venerated ceremony and poignantly addresses the sentiments aroused by the memory of those who gave their lives for their country.
