

We Are Together by Britta Teckentrup tells us that when we stand together we make a vibrant community. Can you draw yourself? What makes you similar and what makes you different from your friends? Hand in your drawing and you can be added to a display of your community!