BOOK OF THE YEAR: YOUNGER READERS (1-6)

(In Alphabetical Order by Author and Illustrator)

(RRP) (SCHOOL)

1. Millie and the Night Heron (Catherine Bateson) $16.95 $13.55

"The daughter of an artist and a scientist, and your own interesting self, Millie. What more could you need?" But Millie isn't sure that Tom, her mum's boyfriend, is right about that. But as her father says, change is needed, and sometimes it's the biggest changes that make us who we are. 'Millie and the Night Heron' reminds us all to stop and remember the important things in life.

2. Helicopter Man (Elizabeth Fensham) $14.95 $11.95

A mystery, an adventure story, and an ultimately hopeful book about a child dealing with his father's schizophrenia. Pete knows he leads an unusual life for a twelve-year-old boy, but he's never dared to ask questions before. Now he needs some answers. He's clever, he starts to piece the scraps of information together, but he isn't prepared for the truth.

3. To the Light (Pat Flynn) $16.95 $13.55

Jamie is determined to win the local surfing competition. Then he is almost wiped out by a huge wave while tube riding for the first time. Being inside the wave is the ultimate for a surfer. Once you've been, you'll never forget. But once you're in you have to make it out. An old Malibu rider teaches him how to become part of the wave and make it 'To the light'.

4. Once (Morris Gleitzman) $16.95 $13.55

Once I escaped from an orphanage to find my Mum and Dad. Once I saved a girl called Zelda from a burning house. Once I made a Nazi with a toothache laugh. My name is Felix. This is my story.

5. True Story of Mary, Who Wanted to Stand on Her Head, The (Jane Godwin and Drahos Zak) $22.95 $18.35

A spiky story in rhyme about a girl who has a unique view of the world and just can't be made to fit in! The darkly humorous illustrations by Drahos Zak make an irresistible package. Mary is an upside-down girl and there is just no stopping her. 'The True Story of Mary', told in 31 verses, is a celebration of what is wayward, wilful and extraordinary in every child.

6. How Hedley Hopkins Did a Dare (Paul Jennings) $16.95 $13.55

Hedley Hopkins has a few problems: he is the new kid at school, straight off the boat from England in the 1950's. If he could just fulfill a dare and dig out the hideous skull hidden in a grave behind the sand dunes, he could impress the bullies at school and become their friend. But weird things are happening to his body. Is he being punished for his terrible actions?

BOOK OF THE YEAR: EARLY CHILDHOOD (7-12)

(In Alphabetical Order by Author and Illustrator)

7. What the Sky Knows (Nike Bourke and Stella Danalis)

(RRP) (SCHOOL)

$16.95 $13.55

This stunning picture book invites the reader to fly with birds and angels, float with clouds and balloons, to change colours, blow breezes and stir up storms. 'What the Sky Knows' challenges the traditional way of reading picture and text. Stella Danalis has used visual tricks and jokes in a very contemporary manner which will immediately engage young readers.

Indicates book has been shortlisted in more than one category*

8. Rex (Ursula Dubosarsky and David Mackintosh)

$24.95 $19.95

Meet Rex. He is the class pet. Every day, someone gets to take Rex home. What would you do if Rex came to visit you? Rex is sure to charm young readers in this delightful new picture book from the combined talents of Ursula Dubosarsky and David Mackintosh.

9. Emily's Rapunzel Hair (Cecily Matthews and Freya Blackwood)

$27.95 $22.35

A sumptuously illustrated storybook for pre-schoolers and primary readers about four-year-old Emily as she waits impatiently to grow long, flowing hair just like Rapunzel. While Emily waits for her hair to grow (and experiments with wearing red tights on her head to provide the illusion of Rapunzel hair), we join her on her everyday adventures.

10. Annie's Chair (Deborah Niland)

$24.95 $19.95

Today, Annie was boiling mad. Someone was sleeping in her chair! 'No one is allowed on my chair!' Annie tells everyone. But who has broken the rule? And what will Annie do to get her favourite chair back? From the much-loved illustrator of 'There's a Hippopotamus on Our Roof Eating Cake' comes a little girl with a determined streak and an adorable personality!

11. Daddy's Having a Horse! (Lisa Shanahan and Emma Quay)

$15.95 $12.75

Caitlin is excited because Mummy is having a baby and brother Lachlan is even more excited. He thinks Daddy is having a horse! This funny, tender story about what not to expect when Mum is expecting will appeal to all. It is also a celebration of the role of fatherhood and a perfect story for all children awaiting the arrival of a new brother or sister.

12. Kisses For Daddy (Francis Watts and David Legge)

$24.95 $19.95

When a grumbly Baby Bear refuses to give his Father a goodnight kiss, their bedtime routine is transformed into a delightful game, as Daddy imagines all the different sorts of kisses that other animal babies give their Dads. This warm, affectionate story is perfect for children and their Daddies to share! Ages 2-5

PICTURE BOOK OF THE YEAR (13-18)

(In Alphabetical Order by Illustrator and Author)

13. Sound of the Sea, The (Jacqueline Harvey and Warren Crossett)

(RRP) (SCHOOL)

$26.95 $21.55

Samuel is remembering the precious times he spent with his mother before she became ill and passed away. With the love and support of his grandparents, Samuel gradually comes to terms with his anger, grief and eventually accepts his mother's death. Heartbreakingly depicted in Warren Crossett's beautiful illustrations.

14. What the Sky Knows (Nike Bourke and Stella Danalis)

$16.95 $13.55

This stunning picture book invites the reader to fly with birds and angels, float with clouds and balloons, to change colours, blow breezes and stir up storms. 'What the Sky Knows' challenges the traditional way of reading picture and text. Stella Danalis has used visual tricks and jokes in a very contemporary manner which will immediately engage young readers.

15. Short and Incredibly Happy Life of Riley, The (Colin Thompson and Amy Lissiat)

$27.95 $22.35

Human beings live for quite a long time and for a lot of that time we are not happy. We want to be taller, shorter, fatter, thinner. We want our straight hair to be curly, our curly hair to be straight, and our brown eyes to be blue. Rats live for quite a short time and for most of that time they are very, very happy... and we think we are better than rats! Ages 5+

16. Irving the Magician (Tobhy Riddle)

$24.95 $19.95

Irving lives with his Aunt Irma in a big block of flats in a part of town that nobody visits unless they have to. The people who live around him are sad and lonely. When Irving overhears someone say that the magic has gone from life, Irving decides to become a magician to bring the magic back.

17. Island, The (John Heffernan and Peter Sheehan)

$27.95 $22.35

The People came to the pool every day. They swam and dived and paddled with the creature. But they didn't notice it was changing before their eyes. Only the urchin noticed. He knew that the life of the creature was trickling away like sand through his fingers. He helps the creature to escape, and together they disappear.

18. Run, Hare, Run! The Story of a Drawing (John Winch)

$24.95 $19.95

This story follows in the footsteps of the great sixteenth-century artist Albrecht Durer and his dog as they chase a hare for the artist's famous sketch. John Winch's highly detailed, stunning oil paintings brilliantly depict the early renaissance setting, while his evocative text conveys the drama of the situation from the hare's point of view.

EVE POWNALL AWARD FOR INFORMATION BOOKS (19-24)

(In Alphabetical Order by Author)

(RRP) (SCHOOL)

19. Hoosh! Camels in Australia (Janeen Brian)

$29.95 $23.95

A fascinating insight into one of Australia's most important and remarkable animals - the camel. From the role of camels in Australia's modern history through to the use of camels in Australia today, and everything in between, this book is all you ever wanted to know about this humble humped mammal. Are they a pest or a resource in today's society?

20. Creatures of the Rainforest (Warren Brim and Anna Eglitis)

$26.95 $21.55

Have you heard about the red-eyed green tree frog that lives high in the rainforest canopy? Or the ants that weave threads of silk? Or the pigeons from New Guinea that feed on quandongs and nutmeg? Discover the secrets of a Queensland rainforest, information about each animal and Djabugay name and wordlist.

21. Scarecrow Army: The ANZACS at Gallipoli (Leon Davidson)

$16.95 $13.55

This book is an engaging and accessible account of the Gallipoli story. It is a blend of fiction and information that puts readers in the shoes of the Anzacs. On April 25th 1915 thousands of Australians and New Zealanders landed on the Gallipoli Peninsula to fight a battle they thought would last three days. They had gone looking for the adventure of a lifetime. Ages 9+

22. Glory Garage, The (Nadia Jamal and Taghred Chandab)

$18.95 $15.15

A collection of true stories that present a fascinating insight into a culture that remains mysterious to many non-Lebanese Muslims. Warm, provocative, funny and poignant, these tales of family and community life, contradictions and customs, are a vivid insight into an exotic and vibrant culture.

23. Big Picture Book, The (John Long, Brian Choo and Segei Pisarevsky)

$29.95 $23.95

Four billion years of evolution in 48 pages is told in lyrical text and astounding images reflecting the latest scientific research. Watch as continents shift over billions of years and the first stirrings of life appear and evolve, over millennia, into the birds, beasts, plants and fish we know today. Explore our planet's history in 'The Big Picture Book' - it's too fascinating to resist!

24. Charles Darwin's Big Idea (Robin Stewart)

$18.95 $15.15

This book is as much about Charles Darwin as it is about his ideas. A keen curiosity, an open mind, courage and patience, and the ability to think differently, combined to change our view of natural history. This is the story of his discoveries and conclusions, a story full of ideas and adventure.

BOOK OF THE YEAR: OLDER READERS (25-30)

(In Alphabetical Order by Author)

(Note: Most of these books are for mature readers)

25. Story of Tom Brennan (JC Burke)

$16.95 $13.55

For seventeen-year-old Tom, life is about rugby, his mates and his family, who are well respected in their small country town. But a night of celebration changes his life forever. Tom's older brother, Daniel, starts a fight at the 'sudden death' pre-final party, then Daniel is involved in a car accident on the way home. Their cousin, Fin, suffers spinal injuries, and the two other passengers are killed. Tom's world explodes as Daniel is sent to jail and the Brennan's are forced to leave town. While Tom and his sister, Kylie, adjust to life at a new school, their parents have trouble coming to terms with the debt of their paralysed nephew. The past is never far away. Tom is a survivor, but he needs a ticket out of the past. He will find it in many forms.

26. Double Exposure (Brian Caswell)

$18.95 $15.15

Chris Eveson is a genius; streetwise, artistic and sensitive, and rebelling against the domineering abuses of his father. Unlike his twin brother, Cain, who seems average in every way - at least to the outward observer. But gifts and talents run much deeper than two dimensions. Brian Caswell's extraordinary new novel will draw you into a web of mysteries, and of horrors from the past buried by lies in the present.

27. No Worries (Bill Condon)

$18.95 $15.15

Brian Talbot: seventeen, virgin, high school dropout, nightshift worker at the local dairy, in love. When life is kicking you down, you need to kick back, but when your old man lives in the shed in the backyard, and your mum has problems of her own, that's not always easy.

28. Chasing Charlie Duskin (Cath Crowley)

$16.95 $13.55

Charlie Duskin is running. Fleeing from failures and memories and friends who have given up on her. And she's not only running, she's chasing things - like a father who will talk to her, friends who don't think she's as invisible as a piece of cling wrap, and an experience with a boy in which she doesn't look like an idiot. But Charlie Duskin is about to meet a friend who'll change her forever...

29. It's Not All About You, Calma! (Barry Jonsberg)

$16.95 $13.55

Calma Harrison is in love. Not just with herself, but also with the handsome checkout guy at Crazy-Cheep. But when Calma gets a job at Crazy-Cheep, her cynical approach to customer service makes headlines. And then there is the small matter of the rest of her life, which is fast falling apart: her absent father turns up unexpectedly and wants to "talk" to her mother, "The Fridge", is keeping secrets and her new best friend, Vanessa is hiding something horrible. Fearing the worst for her family and friends, Calma knows the only sure way to shape events is direct, personal intervention...

30. Lost Property (James Moloney)

$19.95 $15.95

Josh's life appears perfect - he does well at school, plays in a band, has a girlfriend, and a summer job. But his family is falling apart, since his older brother Michael, left without a word to the family. Josh comes across a clue to Michael's whereabouts and decides to take off and find him, without telling his parents.
