And how sometimes that world is the only refuge. Its publication coinciding with the centennial of the signing of the Treaty of Versailles, this moving and sparsely narrated story, based on true events, is re-enacted in fascinating miniature scenes that convey the emotional complexity of the tale. Found dead in on an Adelaide beach in 1948, a half-smoked cigarette still in his mouth and the labels cut out of his clothes, the Somerton Man has intrigued people for years. Year 10 has plenty of mysteries of its own: boys, drama queen friends, and enigmatic new students. Interspersed with fictionalised snapshots of the Somerton Man investigation, ALL THAT IMPOSSIBLE SPACE is a coming of age novel exploring toxic friendships and the balance of power between teacher and student. Ages 14+ Mystery-Crime

102. Impossible Music (Sean Williams) $19.99 (RRP) $15.99 (School)

Music is Simon's life - which is why he is devastated when a ministroke obliterates his hearing. He resists attempts to help him adjust to his new state, refusing to be counselled, refusing to learn sign language, refusing to have anything to do with Deaf culture. Refusing, that is, until he meets G, a tough-as-nails girl dealing with her own newly experienced hearing loss. In an emotionally compelling tale crackling with originality, Simon's quest to create an entirely new form of music forces him into a deeper understanding of his relationship to the hearing world, of himself, and of the girl he meets along the way. Ages 14+ Disability-Deafness-Hearing Impairment-Music-Identity-Love-Loss
