1. Australians All (Nadia Wheatley and Allan Searle) $49.99 $42.49

Australians All encompasses the history of our continent from the Ice Age to the Apology, from the arrival of the First Fleet to the Mabo Judgement. Brief account of the lives of real young Australians opens up this chronological narrative. Some of the subjects of the eighty mini-biographies have become nationally or even internationally famous. Others were legends in their own families and communities. Meticulously researched, beautifully written and highly readable, Australians All helps us understand who we are, and how we belong to the land we all share. It also shows us who we might be.

2. Bertie (Pamela Allen) $19.99 $16.99

With all Pam's trademark simplicity of line and characterisation, this is the perfect book to share with the littleies in your life. Together you can choose... are you happy or grumpy? Will you cry or will you sing? Straightforward comparative text about feelings with clean, clear art.

3. Giving His Best: Cadel Evans (Hilary Badger) $16.95 $14.41

Cadel Evans mastered mountain biking in his teens and subsequently became a world champion. Now in his 30s he is the winner of the toughest race in the world, the Tour de France. In Giving His Best we learn how Cadel Evans' passion, ambition and hard work led to his success. Written in a clear and simple, easy-to-read format accessible to children and adults alike, it's for anyone who wants to read about Cadel's early achievements - and how hard work eventually won him the most famous race in the world.

4. Great Big Book of Feelings (Mary Hoffman and Ros Asquith) $27.95 $23.74

The book opens with the question: "How are you feeling today?" And this leads on to a spread by spread presentation of a wide range of feelings, taken from the following: Happy; Sad; Excited; Bored; Interested; Embarrassed; Lonely; In need of solitude; Looking forward to something; Confused; Hurt; Scared; Relieved; Angry; Calm; Shy; Confident; Jealous; Worried; Amazed/Surprised; Lucky; Cheerful; and Playful. The design will show lots of different children in lots of different situations, brief text captions and questions and plenty of humour to make sure the book is fun, as well as dealing with a serious and important subject - human feelings.

5. Guinness World Records 2014 (Compilation) $42.99 $24.99

Awesome and then some! The planet's biggest-selling copyright book is back, and trust us: it's Officially Amazing! Work up a sweat on the world's largest rideable bicycle. 10. Yoko's Diary (Paul Ham)

1945 was a hard time to be a child in Japan. Many had seen their cities destroyed by US bombers. Food, fuel and materials were in short supply. Yet spirits remained high. In April 1945, Yoko Moriwaki started high school in Hiroshima, excited to be a prestigious 'Kenjo' girl, and full of duty towards her parents, school and country. But the country was falling apart and in four months time her city would become the target for the first atomic bomb ever used as a weapon. In her diary, Yoko provides an account of that time - when conditions were so poor that children as young as twelve were required to work in industry; when fierce battles raged in the Pacific and children like Yoko believed victory was near.

81. Maude: The Not-So-Noticeable Shrimpton (Lauren Child and Trisha Krauss)

$14.99 $13.50

Flamboyant and eccentric, being noticed is what all the members of the Shrimpton family live for - all except, that is, for Maude. She prefers to blend into the background rather than stand out in a crowd. And this is very much to her advantage when they all come face to face with a rather hungry tiger . . . Sophisticated and highly decorative, Trisha Krauss cleverly uses visual clues and innuendo to embellish the tale of the not-so-visible Maude and her extraordinary family.

82. Monkey Found a Baby (Jeanne Willis and Jane Chapman)

$24.95 $22.46

Monkey found a baby, an itsy bitsy baby. Monkey found a baby beneath the banyan tree. When baby monkey spots a lion the trouble really starts in this rollicking read aloud rhyme that's perfect for sharing with little monkeys everywhere.

88. Troll Swap (Leigh Hodgkinson)

$22.99 $20.70
Timothy Limpet feels out of place in the troll family - he likes things to be just so, and most trolls, frankly, don't. Tabitha Lumpit likes things to be loud, loopy and messy and she feels a fish out of water in her very neat family. Sometimes they wonder if their families really see them for who they are, so when Timothy and Tabitha meet on the bridge they decide each other's family is a better fit and they swap places... with hilarious and touching results.

89. Tug of War (John Burningham)

$24.95 $22.46
A stunning retelling of a traditional African folk tale, beautifully illustrated by John Burningham. Hare, Hippopotamus and Elephant live together, but not happily, for Hippopotamus and Elephant are forever teasing poor Hare. One day, Hare decides to teach his friends a lesson, and so the great Tug Of War begins ...

90. Two Nests: A Happy Story About Separated Families

(Laurence Anholt And Jim Coplestone)

$24.95 $22.46

Two little birds build a nest together, and the female lays an egg. Out hatches baby bird, and they are all as happy as can be. Until they start to squabble and argue, and the nest is not so happy after all. The solution is for the birds to build another nest in the tree, one for Mummy Bird and one for Daddy Bird. And Baby Bird can live in both nests and go between the two as often as he wishes. Written in rhyme, and with great sensitivity, this is a lovely story to help explain to very young children why family separation is sometimes necessary - and to show that it can lead to happiness for everyone.

91. Weasels (Elys Dolan)

$22.99 $20.70

92. We Have Lift-Off! (Sean Taylor and Hannah Shaw)

$27.95 $25.16

Mr Tanner the farmer pollutes his farm and mistreats his animals, leading the animals to stage a rebellion. They build an intergalactic space rocket to take them up into the clean, clear skies, far away from PEOPLE. First a chicken, then a clever rabbit, and lastly a calm sheep, are chosen for test flights. But each time something goes wrong and the rocket returns to Earth. The animals don't know what to do. But then Farmer Tanner discovers the rocket. Determined to take it for himself, he zooms off into space, and is never seen again. The message is clear - look after each other and the planet, or it will be your turn next in the rocket...!

93. Why Noah Chose the Dove (Isaac Bashevis Singer and Eric Carle)

$12.99 $11.70

Noah was a righteous man, says Isaac Bashevis Singer, so he and his family were to be saved from the flood. But rumor had it that only the best of all living creatures were to be taken aboard the Ark with Noah. In a fresh and lively approach to the age-old account, Isaac Bashevis Singer sets down the dialogue of the animals as they vie with one another for a place on the Ark.

What if they'd invented rock 'n roll way back in the 19th century? What if it could take over the world and change the course of history? In the slums of Birmingham, the outcast gangs are making a new kind of music, with pounding rhythms and wild guitars. Astor Vance has been trained in refined classical music. But when her life plummets from riches to rags, the only way she can survive is to play the music the slum gangs want. Charismatic Verrol, once her servant, is now her partner in crime... and he could be so much more if only he'd come clean about his mysterious past...

193. Stay: The Last Dog in Antarctica (Jesse Blackadder)

$14.99 $13.50

Left alone on the streets of Hobart to collect money for the Royal Guide Dogs of Tasmania, a Labrador called Girl tries to make the best of it. Her dreams of adventure can never come true though, as she is, after all, made of fibreglass. But then one night some rowdy Antarctic expeditioners walk past her on their way to the docks and before she knows it, Girl has been dognapped, smuggled aboard the Aurora Australis, and is headed for Antarctica. This is based on the true story of Stay, who was smuggled to Antarctica in 1991 and is still having adventures there today.

Sylas Tate leads a lonely existence since his mother died. But then the tolling of a giant bell draws him into the world of the Other, where he discovers not only that he has an inborn talent for magic, but also that his mother might just have come from this parallel world. Meanwhile, evil forces are stirring, and an astounding revelation awaits Sylas: that the Other is a mirror of our world, and every person here has their counterpart there, known as a Glimmer. As violence looms and the stakes get higher, Sylas must seek out his Glimmer, and unite the two halves of his soul - otherwise the entire universe may fall...

HOT TOPICS: TWISTED FAIRYTALES (578-599)

(Includes GST)
(RRP) (SCHOOL)

578. Cinderelephant (Emma Dodd)

Prince Trunkly is on the lookout for a bride and the whole kingdom is invited to a ball. The Warty Sisters are determined to keep Cinderelephant at home and snag the handsome bachelor for themselves, but the Furry Godmouse has other ideas. The moment Cinderelephant trips into his arms, Prince Trunkly knows that she is his one true love, but can he track down the lady who fits her dainty (well, almost dainty) slipper?

$12.99 $11.70

579. Emperor's New Clothes Horse, The (Tony Wilson and Sue Degennaro)

The Emperor has won almost every horse race in the kingdom ... all except one. 'I'd trade all these trophies for one Cristobel Cup!' When two brilliant international trainers claim to have found the fastest racehorse for the Emperor, it sounds like his wish will finally come true! But is it the perfect horse?

$26.99 $24.30

580-587. Fairy Tale Twists (Katie Dale)

Each rhyming story takes a familiar fairytale character and reveals their version of events - as you've never seen them before!

$12.99 $11.70ea

580. Big Bad Werewolf

581. Charming's Princess Quest, The

582. Goldilocks and the Pea

583. Jack to the Rescue!

586. Unfair-Y Godmother, The

587. Wickedest Witch, The

$24.95 $22.46

588. Goldilocks and the Three Dinosaurs (Mo Willems)

Once upon a time, there were three hungry dinosaurs: Papa Dinosaur, Mama Dinosaur and ... a Dinosaur who happened to be visiting from Norway. Of course. One day, purely on a whim, they decided to tidy up their house nice and neat, make their beds up all cosy and comfortable, prepare delicious hot chocolate pudding of varying temperatures, place their chairs just so, and go ... SOMEPLACE ELSE. Let's be clear, they were definitely NOT setting up a trap for some succulent, poorly supervised little girl called Goldilocks who may wander by ... a-hem. NEW

$16.99 $15.30

589. Great Fairy Tale Disaster, The (David Conway and Melanie Williamson)

Once upon a time there lived an old Big Bad Wolf. He no longer has any huff and puff to blow down the Three Little Pigs' houses so he scampers off into the pages of the Fairy Tale book to find a new one. He tries one tale after another, but things never quite work to plan. Will he find a fairytale that suits him perfectly? With all the well-known and well-loved fairytales, including Cinderella, Sleeping Beauty, Rapunzel, Jack and the Beanstalk, and Goldilocks and the Three Bears.

14.99 $13.50

590. Little Red: A Fizzingly Good Yarn (Lynn Roberts and David Roberts)

Little Red is on his way to visit his grandmother on the other side of the wood. Ignoring all warnings of wolves in the wood, he removes his coat and strays from the path. That's when the greedy wolf, lurking in the wood, hatches an evil plan. He steals the little boy's red coat and hurries to the cottage to gobble up Little Red's shortsighted grandmother. And Little Red is next on the menu! But can a keg of delicious sparkling ginger beer save him from a gruesome end?

$12.95 $11.66ea

591-596. Other Side of the Story (Various)

Was Cinderella annoyingly chatty? Was the Big Bad Wolf a victim of circumstance? Just because these classic stories are told from the protagonist's point of view doesn't mean the antagonists don't have their side of the story too. Make sure your readers have the whole story!

591. Believe Me, Goldilocks Rocks!

592. Honestly, Red Riding Hood Was Rotten

593. No Lie, I Acted Like a Beast! NEW

594. Seriously, Cinderella is So Annoying!

$14.99 $13.50

597. Princess and the Peas, The (Caryl Hart and Sarah Warburton)

Lily-Rose May will not eat her peas. Even when her father turns them into the most fabulous smoothies, shakes or cupcakes, Lily can always tell they are there, and throws a terrible tantrum. Luckily, the doctor knows exactly what to do. He diagnoses an incurable case of Princess-itus and sends Lily to live at the palace. Unfortunately for Lily Rose May, the perfect food for a princess is... well. That would be telling!

$16.95 $15.26

598. Stinky Cheeseman, The (Jon Scieszka and Lane Smith)

A different look at everyone's favourite fairy tales. Jon Scieszka introduces some really stupid off-the-wall fairy tales including: "Chicken Licken", "The Princess and the Bowling Ball"; "The Really Ugly Duckling", and "Jack's Bean Problem".

$19.99 $18.00

599. Three Ninja Pigs (Corey Rosen Schwartz and Dan Santat)

When the big bad wolf threatens their village, three pigs sign up for different martial arts lessons to prepare to take him down. Pig One and Pig Two don't stick with their training, though, and are no match for their foe. But after practice and dedication, Pig Three becomes great at karate (including perfecting the perfect pork chop!) and saves the day.
