AUSTRALIAN PICTURE BOOKS (31-69)

(RRP) (SCHOOL)

31. Another Book About Bears (Laura Bunting and Philip Bunting)

Ever wondered why there are so many books about bears? Discover the grizzly truth in this bear-all account. Bears are tired. Sick and tired. And just when they are in the middle of something really good like sleeping, snoozing or napping, too many storybooks mean they have to stop what they are doing (that is sleeping) and get up and be part of a story. Every story. Well, the bears have had enough. They are going on strike. But what sort of alternative animal could be... just right?

32. Beware the Deep Dark Forest (Sue Whiting and Annie White)

Only the courage of a small girl can overcome the dangers of the Deep Dark Forest. Beware the deep, dark forest! You should never, ever go in there . . . Rosie has always followed this rule until the day her pup Tinky goes missing in the woods. So Rosie decides to trek into this dangerous, muddy place. But there are many obstacles along the way - including a huge grey wolf, a scary ravine and a ferocious troll!

33. Bumblebunnies: Pond, The (Graeme Base)

Wuffle the puppy, Lou the kitten and Billington the duck are playing happily in the garden. But when disaster strikes, who will save the day? From the award-winning bestselling creator of Animalia comes a new series to delight young readers.

34. Cherries (Carol Gallasch and Sara Acton)

The days are long and warm, the nights balmy, and the cherries in the orchard are growing juicy and plump. Time stretches endlessly ahead as we're transported to an idyllic summer of swinging from trees, running with kites and gazing at stars. With wistful illustrations by award-winning Sara Acton, Cherries is a story about the freedom of childhood and the magic of that first bite of summer fruit.

35. Clever Crow (Nina Lawrence and Bronwyn Bancroft)

Clever Crow is an endearing and witty tale that follows the exploits of a hungry and very clever crow. Crow searches in the bush for food but he can find none. It is only when he comes across people preparing for a ceremony that his luck changes. Crow spots a big turtle egg waiting to be cooked, and he cries out, 'Yummy, food for me!' But it is not an easy task stealing a turtle egg – even for a clever crow. Children will love Bronwyn Bancroft's distinctive illustrations, and how the Djambarrpuynu language translation – Yolnu language from North East Arnhem Land – is woven into the design.

36. Collecting Sunshine (Rachel Flynn and Tamsin Ainslie)

Mabel and Robert love to collect things on their walks - leaves and stones and seeds and berries. But when they are caught in the rain and can't take their collection home they have an even better idea . . . A book for those magical days when a walk to the park is nothing short of an adventure.

37. Digby and Claude (Emma Allen and Hannah Sommerville)

Digby's street is soon going to look different - old houses are going to be demolished and new apartments will be built. Digby loves Main Street but he isn't sure he wants it to change. With plans of his own and Claude, his new friend, Digby explores what it really means to belong. Together, Claude and Digby create their own world - a hideout where they can think and play. Day by day, as their cubby house grows, so too does their friendship.

38. Digby and the Duck (Max Landrak)

Digby can't shake the feeling he's being spied on, but by who? Curiosity and investigation will pay off - in the most unexpected way! A wonderfully illustrated, off-beat story that will delight kids, parents and educators. A book about determination, discovery and a duck . . . or maybe it's about nothing at all!

39. Dinosaur Day Out (Sara Acton)

Sally and Max love dinosaurs. They can't wait to see them at the museum, but today the dinosaur exhibition is closed. Where will the dinosaurs go on their day off? A whimsical story with humour and heart from author and award-winning illustrator Sara Acton.

40. Here Comes Stinkbug! (Tohby Riddle)

Stinkbug can really stink. But when it starts bugging his friends, Stinkbug wonders if it's time to stop doing what stink bugs do best... A funny bug story, from the much loved, multi-award-winning Tohby Riddle

41. It's Not Scribble To Me (Kate Ritchie and Jedda Robaard)

Have you ever had so many wonderful, wild and beautiful ideas that paper isn't enough to hold them all? Bear has. Upstairs and downstairs, outside and in, the whole house is covered in Bear's colourful art - even Bear's little sister. Can Bear convince her parents that she's creating more than just 'scribbles'?

42. Learn With Ruby Red Shoes: Alphabet Book (Kate Knapp)

A is for angels flying above and around. Their softest of wings make barely a sound. Have fun learning the alphabet with Ruby Red Shoes - everyone's favourite hare!

43. Learn With Ruby Red Shoes: Counting Book (Kate Knapp)

One is for me. I'm one of a kind. I'm separate from you and I know my own mind. Have fun learning how to count with Ruby Red Shoes - everyone's favourite hare!

44. Maddie's First Day (Penny Matthews and Liz Anelli)

First day of school, new experiences and making friends play centre stage for this book for the pre-school age. It is Maddie's first day of school and she has everything ready – her uniform, shoes, socks and hat. But there is one special thing that Maddie can't leave behind – her blanky!

45. Magic Bookshop, The (Natalie Jane Prior and Cheryl Orsini)

Anything Can Happen In The Magic Bookshop ... On rainy afternoons, when it's too wet to play outside after school, Ben goes to his grandfather's bookshop. But with secret doors and passages, and tigers under the floorboards, there's much more going on than Ben could ever have imagined. An enchanting new collection of fully illustrated stories from two much-loved Australian creators, and the perfect gift for any young booklover.

46. Man With Small Hair, The (Jane Jolly and Andrew Joyner)

The man with small hair loves his small hair. He also loves his short pants, zing-a-ding boots and clickety-clackety beads. But the man with small hair is the only person who wears his hair small, and no one else has colourful beads or musical beads either. He decides to hide the things that make him happy in order to blend in with the crowd. Until one day he looks in the mirror and doesn't recognise the man staring back at him. The Man with Small Hair is an uplifting story about self-confidence, bravery and dancing to the beat of your own drum.

47. Midnight at the Library (Ursula Dubosarsky and Ron Brooks)

In Midnight at the Library, critically-acclaimed author, Ursula Dubosarsky, and award-winning illustrator, Ron Brooks, traverse space and time, telling the story of a book throughout history. Dubosarsky and Brooks piece together the story of a book that was opened and loved, given and taken, closed and lost, found and forgotten before being discovered, uncovered and preserved at the library. Beautifully written and splendidly illustrated, this is a story about the inception, creation and preservation of books and culture.

72. Elmer's Walk (David McKee)

$24.99 $22.50

Elmer is enjoying his walk—smelling the flowers, watching the clouds, listening to the waterfall. But each time he points out one of these lovely things to the other animals, they all say they don't have time to stop. They're far too busy. Luckily Wilbur arrives at last and shares Elmer's enjoyment in the stars. A celebration of mindfulness from master-storyteller David McKee.

73. Handful of Quiet: Happiness In Four Pebbles, A (Thich Nhat Hahn)

$22.99 $20.70

A Handful of Quiet presents one of the best known and most innovative meditation practices developed by Thich Nhat Hahn as part of the Plum Village community's practice with children. Pebble meditation is a playful and fun activity that parents and educators can do with their children to introduce them to meditation. It is designed to involve children in a hands-on and creative way that touches on their interconnection with nature. Practicing pebble meditation can help relieve stress, increase concentration, nourish gratitude, and can help children deal with difficult emotions.

74. Is Nothing Something? Kids' Questions and Zen Answers (Thich Nhat Hahn)

$26.99 $24.30

In Is Nothing Something? Zen Master Thich Nhat Hahn answers heartfelt, difficult, and funny questions from children of all ages. Illustrated with original full-colour artwork by Jessica McClure, Is Nothing Something? will help adults plant the seeds of mindfulness in the young children in their lives. Beginning with the most basic questions, "What is important in life?" and "Why is my brother mean to me?" and progressing through issues that we all wrestle with, such as "How do I know if I really love somebody?", "How long am I going to live?", and "What does God look like?", each page presents a question with a short answer.

75. Ladybird's Remarkable Relaxation (Michael Chissick)

$32.99 $29.70

This picture book teaches an effective yoga relaxation technique that can be used anywhere and anytime to deal with a problem. Little Ladybird flutters from big toe to knee to thumb and onwards around the body, showing children how to focus their attention and calm their thoughts. This book will be an excellent resource for teachers and teaching assistants in both mainstream and special needs schools, yoga instructors and parents about coping with difficult emotions.

76. Lemonade Hurricane: A Story Of Mindfulness and Meditation (Licia Morelli and Jennifer E Morris)

$36.99 $33.30

Emma doesn't really like hurricanes. After a busy day of school and activities, Emma likes to sit still and rest. Her little brother, Henry, does everything but. She calls him The Lemonade Hurricane. Henry is a lot of fun when he's not storming through the house, so Emma decides to teach him how to be still. By showing him how to sit, bow, and breathe – simple mindfulness meditation techniques – Emma is able to calm the hurricane within Henry.

77. Mindful Me: Mindfulness and Meditation For Kids (Whitney Stewart)

$34.99 $31.50

Sometimes kids' lives can get busy and out of control, and worries can take over. When that happens, knowing how to pause and regain composure with mindfulness can help! This easily digestible guide introduces kids to mindfulness as a way to find clarity, manage stress, handle difficult emotions, and navigate personal challenges. With step-by-step instructions to over thirty breathing, relaxation, and guided meditation exercises, readers will have an entire toolkit at their disposal and writing prompts will help them process their discoveries. Ages 9+

78. My Lazy Cat (Christine Roussey)

$21.99 $19.80

Meet Boomer, a roly-poly cat. He's always in a happy mood, and he's the best friend of one little girl. But boy is Boomer lazy! From morning to night, Boomer can be found lounging around the house, snoring and snoozing. The little girl, on the other hand, is much too busy for a nap. She's got judo, swimming, yoga, painting, rugby, and biking to do! But one particularly jam-packed morning, Boomer accidentally keeps the girl from getting out the door. Instead of panicking, she decides to take the day at Boomer's pace for once. They spend the rest of the afternoon exploring the garden, and the girl is reminded how nice it is to take time to appreciate life's simple pleasures every once in a while.

79. Now (Antionette Portis)

$24.99 $22.50

Follow a little girl as she takes you on a tour through all of her favourite things, from the holes she digs to the hugs she gives. Now is a clever and lively picture book about enjoying life's moments.

80. Puppy Mind (Andrew Jordan Nance)

$26.99 $24.30

A young boy discovers his mind is like a puppy, always wandering away, into the past or the future. He sets about learning to train his puppy mind to heel to the present moment. Through remembering to breathe, the boy becomes a stronger and more caring master of his puppy mind, keeping it in the present, if only for a moment. Includes a discussion guide for parents and teachers."

81. Silence (Lemniscates)

$32.99 $29.70

What can you hear when you are completely silent? Beautifully illustrated and gently written, Silence encourages children to stop, listen, and reflect on their experiences and the world around them. Using qualities of mindfulness, readers are asked to pay attention to what otherwise gets drowned-out in our noisy environment and use those sounds as a means to develop imagination and curiosity, and learn a little more about themselves.

82. Sitting Still Like a Frog: Mindfulness Exercises for Kids (Eline Snel)

$26.99 $24.30

This little book is a very appealing introduction to mindfulness meditation for children and their parents. In a simple and accessible way, it describes what mindfulness is and how mindfulness-based practices can help children calm down, become more focused, fall asleep more easily, alleviate worry, manage anger, and generally become more patient and aware. The book contains eleven practices that focus on just these scenarios, along with short examples and anecdotes throughout.

83. Take the Time: Mindfulness For Kids (Maud Roegiers)

$19.99 $18.00

What do you notice when you take the time to stop, listen, and experience? This pensive and peaceful book encourages children to slow down and become deliberate with their day-to-day actions and thoughts. With gentle rhythms and soothing imagery, kids may be guided toward a quiet self-awareness and mindfulness. And when a day feels stressful or topsy-turvy, kids can use such self-awareness to calm down and feel better. Kids can then enjoy the beauty of the world all around them and fully savour life.

HOT TOPIC – MINDFULNESS (70-87)

84. Three Questions, The (John Muth)

(RRP) (SCHOOL) $14.99 $13.50
With his stunning watercolors – and text that resounds with universal truths, award-winning artist Jon J Muth has transformed a story by Tolstoy into a timeless fable for young readers. What is the best time to do things? Who is the most important one? What is the right thing to do? Nikolai knows that he wants to be the best person he can be, but often he is unsure if he is doing the right thing. So he goes to ask Leo, the wise turtle.

85. What Does it Mean to be Present? (Rana Diorio and Eliza Wheeler)

$26.99 $24.30

What does being present look like? Noticing when someone in your class needs help and taking the time to help them. Sound like? The rain outside your window. Smell like? Briny seaweed at the beach. Taste like? A bite of orange. Feel like? Allowing the rhythm of your breath, in and out to make you feel peaceful. Follow a group of friends at school, at home, and at the beach as they experience just what it means to be present.

175. Just a Girl (Jackie French)

$16.99 $13.59

Mary, the mother of Jesus, was a truly extraordinary woman. And after 2000 years, the story of her brave and remarkable life continues to inspire and enthral us, as that young woman from Nazareth was never 'just a girl'. In 72 AD, as the Roman army pillages Judea and destroys their village, fourteen-year-old Judith hides her younger sister, her great-grandmother Rabba, a Roman slave called Caius and an unwilling goat in a cave used to store food. Judith's skills will save them as wolves - and humans - threaten the group during that long, icy winter. There are feasts to enjoy as they listen to Rabba tell stories of her youth; of her wealthy marriage in Jerusalem and her life in Nazareth as a child. But there is one story Rabba will not tell, no matter how much they coax her. It is the story of Maryam, her beloved friend who faced the scandal and shame of an unwed pregnancy and the anguish of watching the crucifixion.

The town of Spindrift is frequented by pirates, Shadow Mages and charlatans. It's also home to the Orphanage School, where Finlay lives with Glim, Taya and Eli. Just outside town is the painfully posh Brathelthwaite Boarding School, home to Honey Bee, Hamish and Victor, Duke of Ainsley. When the two schools compete at the Spindrift Tournament, stakes are high, tensions are higher, and some people are out to win at any cost. Before long, the orphans and the boarding school are in an all-out war. And then Whispering Wars break out, and Spindrift is thrust onto the front lines. Children are being stolen, Witches, Sirens and a deadly magical flu invade the town, and all attempts to fight back are met with defeat. Finlay, Honey Bee and their friends must join forces to outwit the encroaching forces of darkness...

'Are you lonely here?' her mother asked. 'Never,' Alice said. 'Not while I am friends with the lyrebird.' Alice has spent her life living on the outskirts of a small town, in a house nestled in bushland. Every other morning, she is visited by a lyrebird. Her bond with this magnificent bird brings her together with her nearest neighbour, Mr Brown, a widower who loves the bush and its treasures as much as she does. But change is coming: Alice is growing up, and having to think about her future. Mr Brown is getting older, and less able to look after himself. And as the nearby town grows, their beloved lyrebird and bushland are threatened too. A touching story that will resonate with readers everywhere.
